

who are you?

It's not enough to know where you're going...

But of Him YOU ARE in Christ Jesus, who became for us wisdom from God—and righteousness and sanctification and redemption— (1 Corinthians 1:30)

There's a story... about Albert Einstein riding a train.

When the conductor came through to punch tickets, Einstein checked his coat pocket but didn't find the ticket. He then checked his pants pocket but still did not find the ticket. He looked in the seat next to him, but still no ticket. The conductor said, "That's okay Mr. Einstein, I know who you are. We all know who you are. I'm sure you bought a ticket." The conductor continued down the aisle punching tickets only to look back to now see Einstein on his hands and knees looking under his seat. The conductor quickly went back to Mr. Einstein and again said, "It's okay Mr. Einstein, I know who you are. We all know who you are. I'm sure you bought a ticket." Einstein then looked at the conductor and said, "I, too, know who I am. I just don't know where I am going."

Billy Graham once told this story and then said of himself, "I know who I am AND I know where I'm going."

Unfortunately, most Christians have it backwards... they know they're going to heaven, but they don't know who they are in Christ.

YOU ARE GOD'S

1 DWELLING PLACE. Of all the places in the world for Him to dwell, He chose to make His home in you

2 YOU ARE LOVED. Although you remember your sins, God doesn't see them. He sees you through Jesus.

3 YOU ARE AN OVERCOMER. You probably don't always feel like it, but there's power in you the world doesn't have.

4 YOU ARE ABLE. Whatever the task is, you have help from Heaven.

5 YOU ARE RIGHTEOUS. This simply means you have God's favor. He has forgiven your sins and tossed them in the sea of forgetfulness.

who are you?

You are IN CHRIST.

For we are His workmanship, created in Christ Jesus for good works, which God prepared beforehand that we should walk in them. (Ephesians 2:10)
